

WealthMe takes the issue of privacy very seriously. This statement sets out our practice concerning data processing.

What data do we hold about you?

This website is provided by WealthMe which is a trading style of Wealth Management Experts Ltd which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. FCA Number 513250 to help you to select products to meet your individual needs. To do this we must obtain certain information from you about your personal and financial circumstances. The information that you give us will then be passed by us to potential providers and researchers who will use that information and respond with the terms they are prepared to offer.

How we use your data?

The nature of our service means that depending on the nature of your enquiry we have to share your personal data with our partners who provide the products and services that you request. For example if after using a comparative service on the website you wish to speak to an adviser or request a financial product, we will pass on your relevant personal data to the partner concerned to fulfil your request.

If you have requested to receive our regular newsletter we may contact you by telephone or by email to inform you of products and services which may be of interest to you. If you wish to opt out of this direct marketing activity please contact unsubscribe@wealthme.com so that we may remove your personal details from the database.

What are "cookies" and how we use them?

For each new visitor to the website we automatically log certain information about how you are using our website. If your computer browser is set up to accept them, we use a feature known as a "cookie" which contains information that is stored on your computer hard drive for record keeping purposes. Cookies allow us to make our website more useful based on stored information about your preferences when you visit our website. If you do not wish for information to be recorded in this way, you are able to configure your browser to refuse cookies or to notify you when you have received one. You can do this for example on Internet Explorer by clicking "tools", go to "Internet Options", go to the "Privacy" tab and select "Block" for "first party cookies" and then "Block" again for "third party cookies" and un-check "always allow session cookies".

We use Google analytics to analyse visitor behaviour on our website. This analytical system generates data about visitor behaviour by using cookies which are stored on users' computers. The information generated relating to the use of our website is used to create reports that are used internally by the Company. Google stores this information. For further information about Google's privacy policy go to <http://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>

Where is your data stored?

WealthMe is the registered data controller of your personal data for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998.

All personal data provided by you is held securely and in confidence by us in our computerised records. You have the right to inspect the data we hold about you at any time. If you wish to do so, please write to the Compliance Officer, Mr Arek Martirosian at compliance@wealthme.com
